

Text4baby Tuesday

A weekly update from the National Healthy Mothers, Healthy Babies Coalition

December 6, 2010

This week, we announce a partnership with the US Consumer Product Safety Commission! Chairman Inez Tenenbaum said recently at a launch of a crib safety campaign, "CPSC is proud to be a partner with text4baby, as they have already sent out millions of text messages promoting safety to pregnant women." We look forward to working together!

Partner Spotlight

The National Council of La Raza (NCLR), the largest national Hispanic civil rights and advocacy organization in the US, is a text4baby outreach partner. NCLR has disseminated text4baby information to their affiliated community-based organizations by region through their Affiliate Member Services publication, E-Digest. NCLR also included a piece in their November 2010 e-newsletter, Entre Nosotros, distributed to all NCLR Affiliates. Thank you for your efforts!

Upcoming Events and Conferences

Webinar: Stopping the Spread of Whooping Cough

Cases of pertussis (whooping cough) continue to rise. In fact, more than a quarter of pertussis cases in Los Angeles County this year occurred in the last month. Join the National Healthy Mothers, Healthy Babies Coalition and pediatrician Dr. Ari Brown for a webinar discussion of cocooning as a strategy for preventing the spread of this highly contagious disease. Ari Brown, MD, FAAP, is a pediatrician, author, child health advocate, and a mom. Her passion to educate families led her to co-author the best-selling “411” parenting book series including Expecting 411: Clear Answers and Smart Advice for your Pregnancy, Baby 411, and Toddler 411. Dr. Brown is a medical advisor for Parents Magazine and ABC News, a spokeswoman for the American Academy of Pediatrics, and a trusted voice for children’s health. She has appeared on numerous national news and talk shows including NBC’s Today Show, CNN and Rachael Ray.

When: Thursday, December 9th, 1:30-2:30 PM ET

Mobile Phones to Improve HIV Treatment Adherence

The Lancet published an article in their November 27, 2010 issue examining the effects of mobile health technology on patient outcomes. In this study, adults with HIV were assigned to SMS intervention or standard care. Participants who received SMS messages had improved treatment adherence rates and rates of viral suppression, compared to participants who did not receive the messages.
